

Contest rules

The contest that is organized by Modelbouwclub Klein-Brabant is open for everyone. Registrations are preferably done in advance.

Models can also be registered at the Happening itself.

All payments are made on the day itself.

Price : preregistration € 2.50
 day of the event € 3.00

Every 3rd model can be registered for free.

The number of models per participant is unlimited and several models may be registered per category.

In the Military Model categories it is allowed to place one figure next to the model without having to participate in the M3 or V4 category.

In each category multiple first, second, and third prizes can be awarded.

The models are judged by the members of the Modelbouwclub Klein-Brabant.

The MKB members themselves will not participate in the contest.

The name of the model and / or associated documentation may not reveal who the builder is.

Associated documents may have a maximum size of A5.

Models who have already participated in the contest in previous years are referred to the exhibition.

The judges may change models to another category if they deem it necessary.

No distinction is made between beginners, advanced and masters in the categories

A1 /A2 /B1 / SF / D1 / JU

Who participates in the contest automatically accepts the rules.
